Corning, NY—January 19, 2024— Pathways, Inc. is thrilled to announce the promotion of Nik Dier to the Coordinator of EAP Services role for Clinical Associates, a professional service of Pathways, Inc.

Rod Noel, Executive Vice President of Clinical Services for Pathways, Inc., stated, "Nik has consistently demonstrated a determination and passion for enhancing our Employee Assistance Program (EAP) services. As the Coordinator of EAP Services, she will oversee the development and implementation of our EAP programs. We look forward to the positive impact Nik will continue to make in her new role."

Employers offer Employee Assistance Programs (EAP) as a benefit to employees and their families to provide confidential counseling and supportive services on personal or professional issues that may be impacting work performance. These could include depression, anxiety, substance abuse, relationship/family issues, work concerns, grief/loss, stress, attention and focus, as well as a variety of other concerns.

For more information about EAP services offered through Clinical Associates, visit www.clinicalassociates.org/eapservices or to discuss any specific needs, please feel free to contact Nik Dier directly at ndier@pathwaysforyou.org or (607) 936-1771 ext. 4244. Nik is excited to engage with your team members and provide valuable insights into the array of services offered through our Employee Assistance Program.
