Russell Family Celebrates 35 Years With Picture Framing Business in Ithaca, NY

Ithaca, NY - The Frame Shop, has been protecting, preserving, and displaying customer's memories for the last 67 years with the last 35 of those under the leadership of the Russell Family. As a family-owned and operated business, The Frame Shop is well known for consistently delivering top-quality craftsmanship, exceptional customer service and enhancing the beauty of their customer's artwork.

Nancy Russell, started working at The Frame Shop with long time owners Hugh and Adele Cheyney in 1986 and bought it two years later making her the fourth owner of the business. Once a grocery store, The Frame Shop has been operating out of the same location since 1956. During Nancy's years at the shop, business grew so she expanded the work space, changed the entrance and added more employees. In 2004, Nancy's daughter Emily, joined the business and is now the current owner. Although Nancy retired in 2011 she still plays a pivotal role as an advisor to Emily and continues to do the occasional consult.

The Frame Shop's personalized approach, combined with their expertise, has not only contributed to the company's longevity but has also created lasting relationships with their clientele. "We are incredibly grateful to our loyal customers, dedicated employees, and the community for their unwavering support over the past 35 years," said Emily Russell. "Our family's commitment to providing exceptional picture framing services has been the cornerstone of our success, and we look forward to continuing to serve our customers for many more years to come."
