BALDWINSVILLE FIRM SLOAN DELANEY, P.C. MERGES WITH BOUSQUET HOLSTEIN PLLC

SYRACUSE, NY – Bousquet Holstein PLLC is pleased to welcome attorney Karin Sloan DeLaney and her staff to our firm's Trusts and Estates Practice. DeLaney will serve as a Member, bringing extensive experience and legal prowess to our firm.

DeLaney joins the firm after ten years of successfully leading Sloan DeLaney, PC – her boutique trusts and estates law firm in Baldwinsville, New York. With nearly 30 years of experience, DeLaney counsels clients in all aspects of estate planning and administration including the preparation of wills and trusts, estate tax planning, long term care planning, special needs planning, and business succession planning.

“We are thrilled that Karin and her team are joining us,” said managing member, David Holstein. “They bring a wealth of talent and experience to our firm, and a commitment to personalized client service and community involvement. We are confident they will be a great fit here.”

DeLaney began her career handling high-net-worth estate planning for actors, artists, and other high-profile clients at a distinguished law firm in New York City. After moving back to Central New York, DeLaney practiced in local law firms, working exclusively on trusts and estates and tax matters.

DeLaney's blend of big firm experience with small firm personalization earned her a trusted reputation and successful practice in the area. She is a published author and frequent lecturer on the intricacies of estate planning and recently completed her term on the Board of Directors for the Central New York Community Foundation.

DeLaney earned her Juris Doctor from Western New England University School of Law and holds Master of Laws in Taxation from Syracuse University College of Law. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science from the State University of New York at Albany.

DeLaney brings with her paralegal Tricia A. Rehm and administrative assistant Amber L. Sliter.
