Gillian Lindstrom Joins Communiqué as Client Relations Manager

Ithaca, NY – Communiqué Design & Marketing announces Gillian Lindstrom has joined the organization as its Client Relations Manager. Her main responsibilities will include business development, influencer marketing, as well as content creation and ideation.

Laurie Linn, President and CEO of Communiqué, shared "I am thrilled that Gillian will be joining our team full-time! As we celebrate our 30th anniversary, it is an extremely exciting time for our team and clients." Linn added, "Gillian's experience, skills, and background will be an incredibly valuable and complementary asset to our fabulous team."

Although new to this role, Gillian is no stranger to Communiqué. She has been working with the team as an intern over the last 6 years; throughout high school and while pursuing her Bachelor of Arts in Communication and Psychology from the State University of New York College at Geneseo. After graduating in May 2020, Gillian entered the financial industry working with CFCU Community Credit Union.

During her tenure with Communiqué, Gillian has worked in a variety of roles on many projects and brings a multi-faceted skillset to her new position. Additionally, Gillian has a plethora of experience in the field of marketing and communications after having interned with Kucerak + Co., a public relations agency located in New York City.

Gillian, who begins her position the first week of May, shared "I am very excited to join the team full-time! In a way, I have grown up with Communiqué and it is such an honor to now work with the organization and our amazing clients in this capacity."
