

Karrin Taylor Robson is a lifelong conservative, business executive, and mother running for Governor with President Trump's endorsement.

Just like President Trump, she is not a career politician; she is a businesswoman who built one of Arizona's top land-use and economic development firms from scratch. For three decades, Karrin has navigated land, water, and infrastructure issues while defending private property rights, streamlining permits, and supporting job growth across Arizona. In addition to her business career, she has served on numerous education and military boards, including more than 20 years as a trusted advisor to the U.S. Air Force Chief of Staff. For her service, she received the Distinguished Service Award, the highest civilian honor given by the Secretary of the Air Force.

A proud wife, mother of four, and grandmother, Karrin is running for Governor to keep our communities safe, root out waste, fraud, and abuse, and Make Arizona Strong Again.
