

Sue Davis brings thirty years of management experience as Sheriff's Assistant and Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in the third largest county in California.

Sue was assigned to the Detective Division working in Crimes Against Persons and Property, hired/trained clerical/administrative staff, prepared search warrants, extradition papers, interrogation documents, and testified in court.

Graduating from the Sheriff's Academy, Sue maintained her Reserve Deputy status by meeting all training requirements including qualifying at the range.

Sue's professional and fundraising experience with elected officials included City, County, State and Federal agencies. Media and celebrity relations were part of her professional duties. She implemented Make a Wish Foundation, McGruff the Crime Dog, and Operation Christmas Basket Programs.

Sue was appointed Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, a County Department Head. Responsibilities included: Attending all Board meetings/recording official actions; Maintaining records dating back to 1866; Receiving and processing all claims against the County; Maintaining over 190 agencies' Conflict of Interest Codes; Serving as Filing Official for more than 1,200 Statements of Economic Interests; Maintaining Assessment Appeals records and actions, Board and Special Districts; Maintaining official records of 70 plus advisory boards, commissions and committees; Administering oaths of office for board appointments; Preparing Board meeting agendas and Summary of Proceedings.

With her background in operations and legal policy, proprietary technology Sue advocated for is still utilized in Kern County and stands as an example to her judgement and tenacity to modernize business. She has a record of improving efficiency and productivity through automation and process improvement.

Sue received accolades from the Grand Jury, AG, KCSO, FBI, DA, Veterans Affairs, IOPA, and many constituents.

Volunteer positions include Children's Ministry Director, American Legion Auxiliary President, Christian youth programs and American Cancer Society; all involved leadership and team building. She served with Haven Hospice, Humane Society and Prescott Area Women's Connection Board.

She is currently a YavGOP Precinct Committeewoman, volunteers at GMIHC, Hospitality church lead, teaches Bible Study, and is a women's discipling coach.

Sue joined RWOP in 2018, served two years on Ways and Means performing fundraising events and hospitality for the Big Event featuring Governor Huckabee.

Sue was elected 2nd Vice President in 2021 and served two terms.

Sue's leadership, and support of Ways and Means Team, successfully grew the revenue stream through innovative events to engage and empower membership. Modernizing the Merchandise Program for better inventory and accountability was a team driven success. Sue's favorite: the Women's CCW class, partnering with Gunsite.

Sue's a strong RWOP advocate, committed to the mission of promoting the principles of the Republican Party through educating, empowering our membership, electing Republicans, and keeping Yavapai County/Arizona RED!

It's an honor being selected by the Nominating Committee for the position of President. Sue appreciates the time and commitment of the Nominating Committee and respects the many years of talent, experience and expertise gleaned while serving within RWOP.

Sue asks for your vote for President of the Republican Women of Prescott. She commits to serve the membership with respect and integrity.
