

John Feddema

John Feddema began his fire service career in 2000 as a Reserve Firefighter with the Central Yavapai Fire District.

He currently serves as the Interim Fire Chief for the Central Arizona Fire & Medical Authority (CAFMA), having worked his way through the ranks of the organization. In addition to his role at CAFMA, Chief Feddema serves with the Mighty Oaks Foundation, supporting veteran and first responder mental health and resiliency.

He resides in Prescott Valley with his wife, Rebecca, and their five children: Carson, Grace, Ethan, Colin, and Anna.