

Supervisor's Message

Hello Everyone,

Hope everyone is doing well. It's hard to believe we are in August already.

School has started, let's be aware of all the extra traffic on the road as parents are dropping off and picking up their children.

Yavapai County Community Health Services was able to help about 1400 children with a backpack giveaway event. What a success! Be sure to click the link for Community Health Services- Healthy Yavapai to check out all the services and programs offered.

On August 5, 2025, I attend the National Night Out event at the Granville Community. What a great turnout with wonderful questions and information.

We had our Board of Supervisors Meeting on August 6, 2025. Following our regular meeting we had a work study session from our consultant Stifel, we discussed information in connection with financing public infrastructure projects.

Monday August 11, 2025, we will be having a Special Board Meeting for the Tax Rate Approval along with a special work study session.

Hope you enjoy this newsletter and feel free as always to reach out if you have any concerns.

Sincerely,

Yavapai County Boards and Commissions

County government depends upon the volunteer services of its citizens to help ensure that an active working partnership exists between government and the public. The existence of this partnership helps County government provide services in a more effective and efficient manner and guarantees that the public is well-represented in the actions that are taken by County government.

The various County boards, commissions and committees offer an opportunity for citizens to become actively involved in County government and to play an important role in the direction of their government. See more information at:

Yavapai County Participates in National Emergency Management Awareness Month

The Yavapai County Office of Emergency Management \(YCOEM\) is joining a nationwide effort this August to observe the inaugural National

Emergency Management Awareness Month. This campaign, launched by the International Association of Emergency Managers (IAEM), aims to increase public understanding of emergency management and promote community resilience.

During August, YCOEM will focus on three key areas:

- Highlighting the Profession: We will showcase the vital role of emergency management professionals and our partners who work diligently to protect Yavapai County from a wide range of hazards.
- Increasing Public Awareness: We will provide residents and business owners with a better understanding of our office's role and the coordinated systems in place to ensure our community's safety.
- Building a More Resilient Community: We will demonstrate to local and state officials how strategic planning and coordination contribute to a safer, more prepared Yavapai County.

This month, we're highlighting the importance of Emergency Management Awareness. It's an excellent opportunity for everyone to learn about the people, plans, and partnerships that keep our community safe and how you can be a part of that coordinated effort. To get started, follow YCOEM on social media for daily tips and updates, and visit the official county preparedness website at YavapaiReady.gov for a wide range of emergency management resources. You'll find information on what our office does, tools to create a family plan, links to sign up for emergency notifications, and more.

As the years pass, it becomes more and more important to remember those killed in what was then an unfathomable act of savagery and depredation. Innocent victims deserved to be remembered, and as the mature are reminded, we have the task of teaching youth, many who were yet unborn when hijacked airliners became weapons of death and destruction.

This display of nearly 3,000 U.S. flags creates an atmosphere of optimism and healing, which must be experienced in person to be truly appreciated.

All are invited to visit the display at the Prescott Valley Town Center, 7501 Skoog Blvd, Prescott Valley, which will run from Friday, September 5th through Friday, September 12th of 2025. You will be amazed to see this touching experience.

Healing Field Website

Prescott Valley Healing Field of Northern Arizona

A tradition stretching over 14 years, Prescott Valley's Healing Field® display draws area residents of Northern Arizona together in a memorable and inspiring tribute to the victims of the terrorist attacks of September 11th of 2001.
