

Grant Quezada, Candidate for Prescott City Council

Grant's bio:

For the last six years Grant has owned and operated John Hancock Barbershop and more recently Founding Fathers Collective with childhood buddy and another Prescott local and Airforce veteran Jesse Burke. Grant's early 20s were spent serving our Nation by enlisting in the Army in 2006 and spending 8 years and 6 Special Operations Combat deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan at the tip of the spear with 2nd Ranger Battalion 75th Ranger Regiment.

Grant, his wife, daughter, and two sons moved back to their hometown of Prescott, Arizona in fall of 2014 with the vision of serving and leading Prescott through business, nonprofits and other civic duties. He has sat on boards and committees to include YMCA, Young Life, PAYP, 100 Men who care, Child Rescue, Three Rangers Foundation.

Founding Fathers Collective has been a success in Prescott and the region since it opened in October 2020. The FFC Project houses 7 different businesses to include City Tavern Taproom, Merchant Coffee, Founders Gym, Liberty Mercantile, Mountain Tribe Jiu Jitsu and the continued legacy of John Hancock Barbershop which was the genesis for Founding Fathers. They employ 60 great individuals, are open seven days a week and are proud to provide a healthy sense of Community, Connection and Care to our City. You can find the building located at 218 N Granite street in downtown Prescott.

His constant desire to Lead through service to others while helping provide Vision, direction and a constant pursuit of healthy collaboration with others in the community has now brought him to the next level of service by stepping into the ring for a Prescott City Council seat. He continues to serve the State with the Arizona National Guard and other endeavours of national and international defense, training and tactics.
