

C40 is a global network of nearly 100 mayors of the world's leading cities that are united in action to confront the climate crisis.

<https://www.c40.org>

Mayors of C40 cities are committed to using an inclusive, science-based and collaborative approach to cut their fair share of emissions in half by 2030, help the world limit global heating to 1.5°C, and build healthy, equitable and resilient communities. C40 supports mayors to do this by:

- Raising climate ambition through 1.5°C climate action plan support, high-impact accelerators and fostering innovation.
- Building equitable and thriving communities via global and regional programs.
- Building a global movement through robust international advocacy and diplomacy.
- Scaling up climate action and sharing best practices across high-impact sectors.
- Facilitating access to finance for investment in green jobs and projects that improve resilience in cities.

Vision Zero Communities

Vision Zero is funded by the progressive left, corporate Opportunists & Pete Buttigieg

What is Vision Zero? The Vision Zero website says a Vision Zero Community is one that meets the following minimum criteria: (Mesa AZ is a Vision Zero Community)

A clear goal of eliminating traffic fatalities and severe injuries has been set.
The mayor has publicly, officially committed to Vision Zero.

A Vision Zero plan or strategy is in place, or the mayor has committed to doing so in a clear time frame.

Key departments (including transportation, public health, and mayors' offices) are leading.

What is the truth? Cars are seen through only one lens, the negative costs, being blamed for what they call “traffic violence” and the true call is for quote, “mobility justice.”
