

Kimberly Yee is the State Treasurer of Arizona. She is Arizona's chief banking and investment officer and oversees the cash management of Arizona's $64.7 billion state budget and payments to agencies, local governments, and schools. Treasurer Yee is also the Administrator of the AZ529 Education Savings Plan and serves as an advocate for financial literacy in Arizona. Treasurer Kimberly Yee is the first Asian American elected to a statewide office in Arizona's history. She is also the first Chinese American Republican woman to win a major statewide office in United States history. Kimberly Yee was elected to the Arizona Legislature in 2010 and served as the Senate Majority Leader. She was the second woman elected as Senate Majority Leader in Arizona's history, following U.S. Justice Sandra Day O'Connor who served in the position in 1973. With eight years of experience in the Arizona Legislature, as well as four years working for the Arizona State Treasurer's Office as a staff member, Treasurer Yee brings a unique perspective to this important financial leadership role for Arizona.
