The Ministry Fair is next Sunday, September 15 - After both services, we will hold our annual ministry fair. The ministry fair is a great place to find out where and how you can help. Please visit the various tables, and explore how you can contribute to our efforts. Happy fall, everyone!

YARD SALE/ FUNDRAISER! If you're like most of us, you've collected a lot of "stuff" that you no longer want, but know could be valuable to somebody. Here's a chance to make some money for yourself and for your church! St. Christopher's will hold a Yard Sale/Fundraiser on Saturday, Sept. 21, from 9 am-1 pm in the Hanover St. parking lot area. Bring in your items on the day of the sale between 8 and 9 am (no storage in the church). Sell your items – meet the neighbors – food items will also be on sale. Contributions to St. Christopher's are voluntary and will go toward maintenance of the education building. Unsold items must be taken home by the owner. A sign-up list is located in the church fellowship hall or contact Chris Erbe or Bob Hall.

News from the St. Christopher's Library Corner: 1) Janet Quinn and Katie Alleman recently reflected on how delighted they are to have been able to revitalize the library with the support of the vestry, the memorial committee, the congregation, our rector and our administrative assistant. Many hands made the work light and enjoyable! As the new school calendar begins, Janet, grateful for Katie's steadfast commitment and leadership, will be taking on as the church librarian. Katie will continue behind the scenes ensuring our lively collection of books stays current and ready for your check out. 2) Rosemary Henry reviewed In the Bleak Midwinter by Julia Spencer-Fleming: An Episcopal priest who flies combat helicopters and helps solve crimes? Clare Fergusson lives that exciting life as the leading character in an entertaining series of novels by award-winning mystery writer Julia Spencer Fleming. The first title in a series of nine adventures, In the Bleak Midwinter is among books you can check out from St. Christopher's church library. Set in upstate New York, the story revolves around former Army officer Clare, who, after being graduated from Virginia Theological Seminary, is assigned as rector of a small church in the town of Miller's Kill. New in town and intent on "doing good," she finds herself dealing with an infant left on the church doorstep early one very cold morning. In the course of trying to identify and find care for the child, she meets the town's chief of police, Russ Van Alstyn. Ms. Fleming is strikingly good at weaving together conflict, church family dynamics, romance, intrigue and adventure. All are well-melded in In the Bleak Midwinter.

Pre St. Francis Day Pet Blessings This year we will have the first, hopefully annual, "Sunday BEFORE St. Francis Day Pet Blessings", September 29th at 2:00p.m. The Rev. David Crosby will preside over the festivities. If you are interested in helping coordinate some of the particulars please see Elaine Sevy or Bob Hall.

Save the Date for Shrine Mont Weekend! Our annual Parish Retreat at Shrine Mont in beautiful Orkney Springs, VA is scheduled for October 4, 5, and 6. Details and costs are forthcoming. If you are considering attending this year, please let Danny Gorham know as soon as possible (703.499.4067 or fgorham103@aol.com). Spots will fill up fast! Shrine Mont is the Virginia Episcopal Diocese Conference and Retreat Center located about 2 hours from the DC area. It is on the site of an old 19th century mineral spa nestled in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains. It is also home to the Cathedral Shrine of the Transfiguration; a beautiful outdoor stone sanctuary that is stunning in the fall. More information about Shrine Mont is available at their website: www.shrinemont.com . This fun getaway is only 2 months away!

The Season of Creation, September 1 through October 4

The Season of Creation, a time when Christian Churches celebrate the sacredness of our natural world, began Sunday, Sept. 1. It will end Oct. 4, the Feast Day of St. Francis. <https://acen.anglicancommunion.org/resources/season-of-creation.aspx>.

During this time, St. Christopher's will celebrate God's gift of the natural world and explore ways that we can protect it. There are several initiatives underway at St. Christopher's to promote responsible stewardship of our natural resources.

Working with the Vestry's Grounds liaison, John Quinn is exploring ways to make our grounds an official wildlife sanctuary. There will be a meeting on Sunday, September 8th at 11:15 to discuss proposed first steps. Elaine Sevy will be reactivating the Green Team to restore native habitat at Lake Accotink Park and on our grounds, and Cathy Branch is pulling together up-to-date guidance on recycling in Fairfax County. Visit the Outreach table at the Ministry Fair, Sept. 15, to learn more. St. C's will hold a "Blessing of the Animals," Sept. 29 at 2:00pm, the Sunday before the Feast Day of St. Francis on Oct. 4.

Elaine Sevy invites our church members and guests to join her for two "Nature Journaling" hikes at Lake Accotink Park on Saturday, Sept. 14 at 10:00am and Monday, Sept. 23 at 5:00pm. Both hikes will focus on the Monarch Butterfly's fascinating Fall migration. Please contact Elaine at yorkiemum.sevy95@gmail.com for more information and to sign up.

During this Season, try to set aside intentional time for you and your family to be outdoors. Take the time to notice the small miracles all around us.
