

Stories in Snow

Who is OUT and ABOUT? What are they DOING?

WHAT: Learn how to read the stories left behind by wildlife in Winter's landscape. Will we see tracks left behind by a fox catching a ruffed grouse? Or follow footprints of a mouse swinging its tail back and forth? Join us and discover!

WHO: Ali Thomas, Education Manager for VT Fish & Wildlife Dept, will lead the workshop. An experienced naturalist who studied under renowned wildlife tracker James Halfpenny, she has worked on conservation education projects throughout the country, and loves helping people discover exciting things about the natural world!

WHEN: Sunday, February 24, 2019 • 12:00-2:00pm

WHERE: Thetford Elementary School Cafe, followed by outdoor excursion. Prepare to walk outdoors.

FREE • Adults young & old, and families welcome!
