

HOME BREWING: MAKE YOUR OWN BEER & ALE (FROM A KIT OR FROM SCRATCH)

Instructor: David McWilliams

When: Sunday, March 10th, 1 to 3 pm

Where: David's home on Star Mountain Road, South Strafford, VT

Cost: $5

Description: Beginners can learn to brew a batch of beer for the first time. More experienced brewers can share their know-how and ideas. We'll cover the basics: equipment needed, procedures, brewing kits versus purchasing ingredients, "extract" versus "all grain" recipes, types of grains, hops, yeasts, and sources for brewing supplies (both local and mail order).

BASKET-MAKING

Instructors: Anita Onofrio & Dottie Dubey

When: Saturday, March 16th, 9am to 4pm, with a break mid-way for a potluck lunch

Where: Newton School Cafeteria, South Strafford

Cost: $40

Description: Learn the traditional techniques of weaving a basket with reed in a relaxed and enjoyable atmosphere. Go home with a completed basket! No experience is necessary. Repeat participants can try a new design this year.

What to Bring: A basin for soaking reed, a measuring tape, an old towel, sharp scissors, a pencil, a few clothespins or clamps if you have them, and a desire to have fun!

WILDLIFE PHOTOGRAPHY USING GAME CAMERAS

Presenter: Mike Hebb

When: Wednesday, March 20th, 7pm

Where: Newton School

Cost: No cost

Description: Mike will show his own game camera footage of everything from moose to squirrels, including animals interacting with one another. Learn about game cameras and how they can be used to gather information, for security, and for enjoyment.

Where: Group will meet at the Park n' Ride in South Strafford and carpool in electric vehicles.

Cost: None

Description: Please join the Strafford Energy Committee for a tour of energy efficient houses in our community. See how renewable energy is used for much of their heating and energy needs. The tour will showcase a variety of homes, featuring straw bale construction, solar energy with backup power via GMP Tesla Powerwall program, wood pellet boiler heating, and more.

Note: Please pre-register!

BELLY DANCE FOR FUN, AGES 5-95

Instructor: Irit Librot

When: Tuesday, April 9th, 6:00 to 7:30pm

Where: Barrett Hall, South Strafford

Cost: $5

Description: Come shimmy the cold away with beautiful and fun belly dance moves. All ages and sizes welcome. Easy instructions, beautiful music, and free playtime with various props like veils, swords, fan veils, wings.

What to wear: comfortable clothes that allow free movement, such as yoga pants, fitted or loose tops.

What will be provided: hip scarves, veils, some props, and of course, music.

EXPLORING BRYOPHYTES – A QUICK AND EASY INTRODUCTION TO MOSSES & LIVERWORTS

Presenter: Micki Colbeck

When: Sunday, April 21st, 12:30 to 4:00pm or so

Meeting Location: Justin Morrill Homestead Education Center

Cost: $10

Description: Micki will begin with an hour-long class in the Education Center showing how to tease apart bryophytes using some general characteristics. Afterwards, the group will hike up behind the Homestead to examine just a few, easy-to-find mosses and liverworts. (If snow persists, we will drive to the base of Taylor Valley and hike from there to look at tree trunk bryophytes). Be prepared to hike on rough ground for up to two hours. Please, no dogs.

Bring: It is good to have some sort of a hand lens or magnifier, a few small brown bags or envelopes for specimens (if you want to gather tiny amounts to bring home - no overharvesting please), a small notepad, and a pencil. Phone cameras and real cameras will prove useful as well.

Additionally: If you'd like to be extra-prepared, obtain Mosses, Liverworts, and Hornworts: A Field Guide by Ralph Pope from Amazon or another online book seller.

EVERYDAY BICYCLING BASICS: FIX A FLAT & MORE

Instructor: Bethany Fleishman (Vital Communities)

When: Monday, April 22nd, 6:30 to 8:30 pm

Where: Newton School

Cost: This class is free, as funding comes through Local Motion and the State of Vermont. However, you MUST pre-register!

Description: This easy welcoming workshop for beginners gives you the skills to manage common problems encountered on a bike ride. While learning how to change a tire, you'll become familiar with brakes, chain/gears, and how to remove a wheel. Participants will leave with free tire levers, chain lube, and patch kit!

Bring: A bike to practice on, if you have one.

Please Note: Most entry-level bikes aren't designed for much adjustment and can be frustrating to work on. If you have questions about whether your bike is right for this workshop: (802) 291-9100 x111 or UVTMA@VitalCommunities.org
