

SENSORY FRIENDLY HOURS

Enjoy a fun and interactive learning experience in a comfortable and welcoming environment!

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 9-10am
THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 5:30-7pm

Sensory Friendly Hours are a time for families to enjoy a less-crowded visit to the Montshire at a discounted rate. This experience may be appealing to individuals with autism spectrum disorder or who have sensory processing differences.

During these hours, the Montshire will offer:

- ▶ Limited participation of up to 70 people
- ▶ Reduced sound from select exhibits
- ▶ Quiet, respite space with sensory materials
- ▶ Pre-visit information, including social narrative and a sensory map

Sensory Friendly Hours were developed in connection with Sensory Friendly Upper Valley.

Reservations for Sensory Friendly Hours are required. Admission will be limited to 70 people and is discounted by $3 per person. Free for Montshire members.

No refunds. Please bring a print-out of your confirmation or be prepared to show it on your portable device.
