

CASH FLOW ISSUES	YES	NO
Are you still employed but will lose your job soon? If so, consider the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Try to increase your emergency fund reserves before you lose your job. If you have a Flexible Savings Account, spend the money while still employed (or while covered under COBRA) for items you may need when unemployed. 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Are you entitled to any compensation (back pay, sick pay, vacation pay) or a severance package? If so, consider confirming the details with your HR department.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Were you laid off, downsized or was your position eliminated? As long as you weren't fired, you may be eligible for unemployment benefits. Benefits are determined based on your state of residence and can last for about 26 weeks.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Do you need to review your budget? If so, look for areas to reduce spending, especially your discretionary expenses.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Will your cash flow be tight? If so, consider the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The length of time your emergency fund will last. If you have debts, contact your creditors to see if you can reduce or defer payments while you are between jobs. Part-time jobs, freelancing, and consulting may provide some income while you are between jobs and might lead to a permanent career path. 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Are you 62 or older? If so, you may be eligible for Social Security benefits. However, you will need to look at this option in the context of your overall retirement situation.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

HEALTH INSURANCE ISSUES	YES	NO
Will you lose your health insurance soon? If so, consider making sure you are up-to-date on medical and dental exams and any medical procedures before your health insurance ends.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Will you need health insurance? If so, consider the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If you worked for a company with 20 or more employees, you may be eligible for COBRA, which will allow you to stay on your employer's health plan for 18 months. You will have 60 days to decide. If you are married and your spouse has a plan through their employer, you may be able to join that plan. You may be eligible for insurance on the Health Insurance Marketplace. You have 60 days after you lose your job to enroll according to the special enrollment period rules. If you are over age 65, you may be eligible to sign up for Medicare if you haven't already. The Special Enrollment Period lasts for 8 months, starting the month after your employer-provided health insurance ends. 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

ASSETS & DEBTS ISSUES	YES	NO
Do you have any debts (student loans, credit card debt)? If so, consider contacting them to explain the situation. They may offer a short-term hardship program.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
