

CHIEF WILLIAM L. TOKAJER
Chief of Police
City of Holmes Beach

Chief Tokajer has a Bachelor Degree in Theology from Life Christian University. He graduated from F.B.I. NATIONAL ACADEMY, (Session 230). He has been in Law Enforcement for thirty-nine years and served in the U.S. Army Military Police. He served in the Sarasota Sheriff Department and Bradenton Police Department. He retired as Deputy Chief of Longboat Key Police Department and has served for the last five and a half years as Chief of Police in the Holmes Beach Police Department.

Chief Tokajer received awards in Fitness, Rotary Club Paul Harris Fellow, Commendation Bar for Lifesaving efforts, Purple Heart for being shot in the line of duty and Medal of Valor for physically disarming a subject and saving the life of fellow officer. He was Officer of the Year in the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons.

Chief Tokajer has a Certification of Merit from MADD, Mothers Against Drunk Drivers. He has been President of Manatee Children's Services Board of Directors for 25 years.