

Karen Phinney Update

February, 2020

My heart is filled with gratitude for each of you who has prayed for me since my cancer diagnosis on September 2, 2017. You have been so faithful. Thank you!

I have finished the first round of a new chemo treatment. The second round will begin on February 11. So far we really don't know if this is working.

As most of you are aware, some really difficult things have happened in the Phinney family. Now I ask for prayers not just for physical healing, but also for spiritual, emotional, and relational healing. Thank you to those of you who have shown love, care, support and encouragement to my family through this.

I'm so thankful we serve a faithful God who is capable of doing what seems impossible.

*Love,
Karen Phinney*
