

This month we'd like you to get to know Eldon Carlson. Eldon is on staff at CBNC as our Networking Director. He loves our region and personally knows many of our pastors. He is investing in networking men who can encourage each other and actively supports church leadership by prayer and perspective as they seek the mind of Christ and plan strategic movement for the sake of the gospel in their churches. His heart is filled with passion to see CB pastors within the entire North Central region continue to connect, in order to advance the Gospel within their communities.

Eldon will now serve in the capacity on staff as the CB North Central Networking Director. Here are some things that he strives to accomplish in his new role.

- Support and pray for our pastors and their ministry teams as they lead their churches to be a gospel-centered presence in their niche in the world.
- He will promote the overall mission, vision and core values of CB North Central
- He will provide ministry perspective and be a sounding board for those seeking to discover the mind of Christ in their next step with the Lord to develop kingdom impact through their church.
- Cultivate fellowship, connectedness and prayer as pastors and their leadership teams clarify the vision God gives to them for their missional engagements.
- Assist regional Clusters identify, establish and develop its own individualized personality
- Aid each Cluster Group to identify and befriend other CB pastors and others they can connect with that have the same gospel-centered focus.
- Support Cluster Groups as they rally behind kingdom oriented projects, that will impact the gospel within their community
- Expand the number of Clusters within our ten state area, so more CB pastors can be served in these challenging days

Please welcome Eldon as he works to accomplish these goals. He will soon be contacting your cluster group, to get your needed input and determine how we can better serve you.

If you have any questions, please email Eldon at ecarlson@bloomer.net or call 715-559-1979. He would love to hear from you. We are very excited about his new role and we believe that together, we can make a difference in how the Gospel can transform lives within our diverse communities. We are here to serve you and look forward to your participation.
