Friday, October 2

Day 2 offers two morning tracks, giving attendees the opportunity to choose the sessions that best fit their interests. Track 1 continues the Guardians of Tomorrow Summit agenda, while Track 2 meets in the Dogwood room and features interactive workshops for Native Connections and Tribal Behavioral Health grantees, as well as anyone interested in learning more about their community and turning that knowledge into action.

The two tracks come back together in the afternoon for the remainder of the Summit.

Track 1: Guardians of Tomorrow

8:00 a.m. | Registration and Breakfast

9:00 a.m. | Opening and Door Prizes

Track 2: Native Connections/Tribal Behavioral Health Grantees

Dogwood Room

8:00–8:25 a.m. | Belonging & Building Connections

Start the morning by getting to know one another, creating a sense of belonging, and sharing what you hope to gain from our time together.

8:25–9:30 a.m. | Know Your Community: Understanding CSA, CRM & Scoring

Take a fresh look at the Community System Analysis (CSA) and Community Readiness Model (CRM) to better understand your community's strengths, needs, resources, gaps, and readiness for change. Explore how CRM scoring can help identify where to begin and guide the selection of strategies that are most likely to be effective.

9:30–9:45 a.m. | Break

9:45–10:30 a.m. | From What You Know to What You Do: Building Your Strategic Action Plan

Connect the dots between your CSA, CRM findings, and Strategic Action Plan (SAP) and explore how community information can guide meaningful goals, strategies, and activities.

10:30–11:00 a.m. | Bring It to the Group: Questions, Ideas & Peer Solutions

Bring your questions, share what's working in your community, and tap into the experience of fellow grantees and former Native Connections TTA Center staff.
