

It is said that “beauty is in the eye of the beholder.” But who should our beholder be, our culture or God?
Our culture’s version of a beautiful woman is a striking contrast to the woman who is described in the Bible.

Join us as we explore this countercultural concept of biblical womanhood and experience the joy of becoming the women God designed us to be.

“but let your adorning be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God's sight is very precious.”

Speaker

*Marsha
Hoover*

Marsha Hoover lives in Port Matilda, Pennsylvania, with her husband, Pastor Ben Hoover, who serves at Port Matilda Baptist Church. They are blessed with two sons, two wonderful daughters-in-law, three grandsons and a fourth grandson on the way.

After seventeen years of teaching elementary students in the Spring Cove School District, Marsha recently retired from the classroom to devote more time to family and to ministry. She leads the women's ministry at PMBC, teaches Sunday evening Bible studies and speaks at the church's spring and fall women's retreats. She also enjoys singing on the church's worship team.

Marsha is passionate about teaching women God's Word and has a heart for discipleship, encouraging and equipping women to grow in their knowledge and love of Christ. She considers it a joy and privilege to encourage, teach, and walk alongside women as they pursue a deeper relationship with the Lord.
