

Camp Health Officer:

Salary: $400-$500 per week based on certification and experience.

Online Employment Application: <https://forms.tentaroo.com/view.php?id=1405296>

Background Information:

The New Birth of Freedom Council, BSA is seeking to employ resident Health Officers for Camp Tuckahoe and Hidden Valley Scout Reservation. Summer employment will run from June through mid-August. All meals, housing and the cost of all additional training and certification is provided by the New Birth of Freedom Council.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Be a minimum of 18 years of age (preferably 21) and become a register member of BSA
- Possess valid credentials in the area of emergency care from a nationally recognized certifying body. The preferred is certification include EMT, LPN, RN, LVN or Paramedic.
- Must provide all required Pennsylvania child abuse clearance records

Responsibilities of the Health Officer

The Camp Health Officer is responsible to the Camp Director for working to maintain the overall health and safety of the Staff, campers, and leaders in camp. The Health Officer must possess a strong background in emergency care. The Health Officer should also understand or be willing to learn the basic procedures to be followed in the program and service areas of the Camp in regard to the protection of the health and safety of those in Camp.

Duties and responsibilities:

- Providing emergency and non-emergency medical care to Scouts, leaders, and Staff.
- Maintaining the Camp health lodge in a clean and orderly manner.
- Maintaining a stock of first aid supplies in program and service areas.
- Keeping detailed and accurate records of all medical care provided in Camp through the Camp health lodge.
- Maintaining adequate infirmary space in the health lodge for sick or injured persons.
- Follow the standing orders issued by the Camp physician.
- Forwarding patients to the local clinic or emergency room as needed.
- Reviewing accepted first aid procedures with Staff members during Staff Week.
- Keeping physical forms for Scouts, Leaders, and Staff members on file in the Camp health lodge in an orderly manner.
- Performing a medical recheck of Scouts, leaders, and Staff members as they arrive in Camp and informing appropriate Staff members of limitation of specific campers as necessary.
- Keeping adequate inventory records of medical supplies and equipment so that the Camp health lodge can be adequately stocked in following years.
- Reporting the need for additional medical supplies and equipment to the Camp Director as the need arises.
- Submitting a report on the operation of the Camp health lodge to the Camp Director at the end of the season.