FPC Women's Weekend Retreat

in conjunction with the Montreat Women's Connection Conference

Friday – Sunday, August 12-14

We're calling all First Presbyterian women to come out from sequestering from the pandemic, from the rigors of everyday life during this unsettling and perilous year. Join with other women at a wonderful retreat at Montreat—the Women's Connection Conference. Invite your friends and family. They don't need to be Presbyterian to attend.

Those of us who attended the Women's Connection Conference in the past found our time in the mountains with like-minded women stimulating, relaxing, and rewarding.

Montreat has put CDC standard health precautions in place and is, as of this date, still requiring face masks.

Claimed for More:

Wholehearted living when we are all out of sorts

Keynote Speaker

Sarah Bessey is the editor of the New York Times bestselling book A Rhythm of Prayer. She is also the author of three popular *and critically acclaimed books: Miracles and Other Reasonable Things; Out of Sorts: Making Peace with an Evolving F*aith; and Jesus Feminist.

Location

Beautiful Montreat Conference Center, nestled in the mountains near Black Mountain, NC. Montreat is a conference center, a retreat center, a place of worship, a wilderness preserve, and so much more. We hope you're able to come and renew your spirit as well as your mind during your stay.

We have reserved the Georgia Lodge at Montreat for our group.

Carpooling will be available.

Scholarships are available; please contact Carol Strickland.

Logistics and Payment

Register for the Women's Connection Conference on the Montreat website: https://montreat.org/events/wc-2022. Cost is $242.

To secure a room at the Georgia Lodge, sign up on the FPC website by April 30. The cost of 2 nights of lodging, which includes breakfast, is $70 for a bed in a shared room. We will plan to bring lunch for Saturday with us. Other meals will be eaten out. (There is limited availability of meals in the Assembly Inn's Galax Room for those not buying the meal plan.)