

CRYA February General Meeting, February 18th, 2025

Pre-meeting:

Recreational Boating Association of Washington (RBAW), Executive Director Guest Speaker

Troy Olason spoke about the many opportunities and challenges the organization faces. Some highlights include fees associated with being a member ($20/per person) and how they are working with yacht clubs to boost membership.

MCSO - not present

Standing Committee Reports and Updates:

Bev Hamlik - Opening Day Public Awareness. Doug aligned with local media (Andy) and may have secured an opportunity to help get the word out via broadcast media. Bev remains focused on building flyer production.

Tony Bacon - Route prep and practice runs continue. Fleet captain communications and review judging as well.

Katie Schenk - Invited folks to join up at Schwitter following the parade for festivities including a screening of Kentucky Derby.

Doug Romjue - would appreciate club participation broadly

Alicia Robinson - Daughters of Neptune recruitment continues

Doug Romjue - Several mandatory updates to be considered at Beacon Rock. Doug may drive over there to say 'hello'.

New Business:

Sean and Scott asked to list the upcoming meetings on the website.

Good of the Order:

Photography thoughts