Beacon Rock permitting, and construction continues to be in process with docks slated to open next summer ('25).

Standing committee commitment is four years, we are recruiting for membership next starting next year. If interested, please reach out to either Ron Bergman or Doug Romjue

Treasurers Report:

Saving $20,056.40

Checking $14,383.49

No outstanding income or expenses

Standing Committee Reports:

Awards banquet. December 3rd. Spaghetti Factory. Choice of meals, $33 for food including non-alcoholic beverages. RSVPs to begin early October through the CRYA website.

Opening Day will have a new location – Vancouver waterfront. Coast Guard is currently reviewing the application materials. Trial run early October. Emphasis for fleet captains to join. Looking for volunteers to be on an opening committee. New boater flyer is in the works, with topics such as being responsible for your wake, etc. Goal is to have a one page flyer and also for publication on the CRYA website.

Alicia is working on a project for the Daughters of Neptune – specifically, a historical archive/acknowledgement of the program over the years. Any content that is able to be shared should be addressed to Alicia.

Wake violations – Mult Channel. Lots of press on the issue following a recent incident. Please be aware of your wake. Courtesy can be extended by simply talking to folks on the radio. We can also do our part to capture video and ‘report’ as needed.

America’s Boating Club – Rendezvous was a success with folks coming in from Seattle. Upcoming classes with information hitting the website soon.

Nautical Safety Foundation. Life jacket kiosks coming to Portland – Cathedral Park and Sellwood. If folks have extra life jackets, please reach out.

Good of the Order:

Continued conversations related to communicating to prospective members about belonging to a local boating club/CRYA.

Motion to adjourn 8:42p. Seconded. Approved.
