

Catholic Schools Week 2023

Theme: Arise and Shine: Live, Seek, Commit, Serve

Teachers decide where these ideas fit into their schedule:

- No homework
- Buddy Class Activity (as determined by the teachers)

Monday, January 30 – Called to Live

Dress: Comfy Clothes - sweatpants and sweatshirt or other comfortable clothing (no pajamas or leggings, please)

- Thank you letters to parents
- D.E.A.R. (Drop Everything and Read - students can bring a small stuffed friend)

Tuesday, January 31 – Called to Seek

Dress: 100 Day or Sports Day - students/staff can make a 100 Day shirt or may wear a shirt illustrating their favorite team or sport (with sweatpants or jeans)

- 100 Acts of Kindness
 - A display will be created where students and staff can post authentic Acts of Kindness
 - Our goal is 100 acts.
- Incorporate the theme of 100 into classes (teachers decide how the topic of 100 will be handled in various subject areas)

Wednesday, February 1 – Called to Commit

Dress: Dress Up Day (Appropriate Dress Up - Mass Today)

- Rosary with Buddy Classes (teachers decide to make a Rosary and/or pray the Rosary)
- Donuts & juice after Mass

Thursday, February 2 – Called to Serve

Dress: Crazy Hats and Crazy Socks - students/staff also can wear Ronald McDonald colors (red and yellow)

- Make Cards for children at Ronald McDonald House
- Ronald McDonald House Drive: information during announcements

Friday, February 3 – Called to Arise and Shine

Dress: Spirit Wear: St. Anthony Spirit Wear with non-uniform bottoms

- We Can for Peru (encourage cans for can drive)
- Pop tops for Ronald McDonald House (encourage pop tops for pop top drive)
- Movie with snacks:
 - Room parents to bring in refreshments
