Savvy Social Security: Planning Strategies for Women

Wednesday June 3

Instructor: Jodi Davis

Social Security is one of the few income sources that keeps up with inflation and lasts for life. But most women fail to maximize their benefits because they don't understand the little-known rules and claiming strategies that can help them get more out of the system. This session will cover essential information all women need to have if they are concerned about financial security in retirement.

Savvy Social Security: Planning Strategies for Couples

Wednesday June 10

Instructor: Jodi Davis

The Social Security decisions spouses make when they are in their 60s will determine the amount of total income they will receive over their lifetime – including the lifetime of the spouse who lives the longest. This session will cover some little-known rules and claiming strategies that can help married couples coordinate their claiming decisions to get more out of the Social Security system.

Medicare Planning for Baby Boomers

Wednesday, June 17

Instructor: Charlie Wolpoff

When you turn 65, the federal government gives you a birthday present: Entrée into the brave new world of Medicare. This course will address Medicare basics and help you navigate through potentially costly traps. We will also discuss how to shop for the private insurance you need to supplement Medicare.
