This course will address Medicare basics and help you navigate through potentially costly traps. We will also discuss how to shop for the private insurance you need to supplement Medicare.*

Family Love Letter for Baby Boomers

Wednesday, September 23, Instructor: Charlie Wolpoff

Legacy Planning brings the human element into estate planning. What if you didn't come home today? Would your loved ones have a process to follow, or would their world be engulfed in chaos? This course takes you beyond estate documents, discussing how you can convert chaos to clarity and closure. Legacy Planning follows a logical progression, and each participant will be given a workbook—the Family Love Letter—for planning purposes.
