So much of the spiritual work you do revolves around stories you hear and the ways you attend to them. These involve moments of sorrow, discerning seeds of hope, honoring someone's spiritual perspective, practicing good listening, and fostering your own resilience in it all. This day-long conference will focus on these themes and offer vital tools for being with the people in our care and the stories we hear.

In coordination with the Montgomery Hospice Center for Learning, we are pleased to invite you to the Montgomery Hospice Conference (co-sponsored with the Chaplains and Bereavement Counselors). We are excited to recommend the presenter this year, Rev. Dr. Carla Cheatham, who is an outstanding national keynote speaker with extensive experience in hospice chaplaincy, bereavement and professional training for hospice workers.

Because of Rev Dr Cheatham's background in hospice chaplaincy and her intent to address issues of spirituality in the stories we hear, Montgomery Hospice will be offering a 20% discount for leaders in the faith community: Pastors, Priests, Rabbis, Imams, Parish Nurses, those involved in Stephen Ministry, members of Wellness Groups, and others.

As faith community leaders, your cost after discount will be $80
(registration for those wanting CEUs is $90).

Your discount code is: FC2018
