

Transit-Oriented Development Boot Camp – East Side

Date: November 4, 2022

Time: 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Location: Saranac Building 25 W Main Ave Spokane, WA – 3rd Floor Learning Studio

Optional happy hour: Black Label Brewing Company 19 W Main Ave Spokane, WA

This in-person, educational event will provide attendees a deep dive into transit-oriented development. Attendees will hear from the Washington State Department of Commerce, Spokane Regional Transportation Council, the City of Spokane and the Spokane Transit Authority throughout the day; learning state, regional, and local opportunities and challenges associated with TOD. Speakers will reflect on lessons learned, the role of community engagement, and incorporating equity in TOD work.

Presenters:

- Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT): Zack Howard
HowardZ@wsdot.wa.gov Transit Coordination Planner
- Spokane Regional Transportation Council (SRTC): Jason Lien, AICP; Principal Transportation Planner jlien@srtc.org
- City of Spokane: Colin Quinn-Hurst; Assistant Planner cquinnhurst@spokanecity.org
- Spokane Transit Authority (STA): Mike Tresidder; Associate Transit Planner
MTresidder@spokanetransit.com, Karl Otterstrom; Chief Planning and Development Officer
KOtterstrom@spokanetransit.com

9:00am: Welcome and housekeeping

9:15 – 10:45am: Lessons and trends in statewide TOD: WSDOT

11:00am: DivisionConnects: A regional approach to TOD Planning: SRTC

11:45am: Lunch – ordered in from Caruso’s

12:30pm: Walking tour of transit amenities

1:15pm: TOD Framework Study: City of Spokane

2:00pm: Being a good partner with your transit provider: STA

3:00pm: PANEL: All guest speakers

4:00pm: Thank you and conclusion

Join us next door for a casual hang out at Black Label Brewing Company!