

Sarah Scott Named Director of Leased Housing at Metro Housing

A graduate of Emerson College, Sarah Scott joined Metro Housing | Boston in 2017 after an extensive career in geriatric social work.

After managing several programs administered by the Connecticut Department of Social Services focused on keeping participants safely housed in their own homes, Sarah came to the Leased Housing Department as a Manager of Federal Voucher Programs. For the last several years she was the Managing Director of Training and Staff Development overseeing voucher program execution and compliance.

As Director of Leased Housing, Sarah is responsible for ensuring Metro Housing's rental assistance programs and staff foster safe and affordable housing choice options, support families reach their goals of financial self-sufficiency, and help ensure housing stability.
