One: I looked for you in the morning God,

All: And found you in the sunrise.

One: I looked for you in the evening God,

All: And found you in the evening star.

One: I looked for you in the anguish of disaster and violence,

All: And found you in the hands and hearts of those who tried to help.

One: I looked for you inside myself,

All: And found you in the love I felt for others.

First Reading ~ John 10:11-16

Leigh Anne Arnold

"I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd would die for the sheep. The hired hand, who is neither shepherd nor owner of the sheep, catches sight of the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away — and the wolf snatches the sheep and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as God knows me and I know God. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd.

Second Reading ~ Luke 15:1-6

By this time a lot of people of dubious reputation were hanging around Jesus, listening intently. The Pharisees, scribes, and legal experts were not at all pleased. They grumbled, "He takes in sinners and eats meals with them, treating them like old friends." Jesus then addressed this parable to them. "Who among you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, doesn't leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and search for the lost one until its found? And finding it, you put the sheep on your shoulders in jubilation. Once home, you invite friends and neighbors in and say to them, 'Rejoice with me! I've found my lost sheep!'
