First Reading ~ Proverbs 8:1, 8:21-26, 8:30-31

Fab Fernandez

Doesn't Wisdom call?
Doesn't Understanding raise her voice?
YHWH gave birth to me at the beginning,
before the first acts of creation.
I have been from everlasting,
in the beginning, before the world began.
Before the deep seas, I was brought forth,
before there were fountains or springs of water;
before the mountains erupted up into place,

before the hills, I was born--
before God created the earth or its fields,
or even the first clods of dirt...
I was the skilled artisan standing next to the Almighty.
I was God's delight day after day,
rejoicing at being in God's presence continually,
rejoicing in the whole world
and delighting in humankind.

Second Reading ~ John 16:12-15

I have much more to tell you,
but you can't bear to hear it now.
When the Spirit of truth comes,
she will guide you into all truth.
She won't speak on her own initiative;
rather, she'll speak only what she hears,
and she'll announce to you things that are yet to come.
In doing this, the Spirit will give glory to me,
for she will take what is mine
and reveal it to you.
Everything that Abba God has, belongs to me
This is why I said that the spirit will take what is mine
and reveal it to you.

Third Reading

Genevieve Walker

~ from an interview with Sister Sandra M. Schneiders, I.H.M (1990)

No one can explain the Trinity! But if you mean what are we to do with the tradition that the Trinity is Father, Son, and Spirit—which, in many people's imagination, comes down to an old man, a young man, and a bird—I would say we need some theological therapy of the religious imagination.

First, God is not three people, much less three males. God is one, the Holy Mystery in whom we live and move and have our being (Acts 17:28). We experience God according to our limited capacity under various personae, (a word which in Latin means an "actor's masks").

Notably, we experience God as divine origin, source, or ground of our being; we experience God as divine communicator, divine communication, and redeemer; and as we experience God as divine energy, mover, transforming power, the One who makes us holy by enlivening us with God's very life. The use of language such as Creator and Parent, Word and Wisdom, Spirit and Breath of Life helps express our multifaceted human experience of the one God.

"Let Us Be Bread"

By Thomas J. Porter

The Leader will sing the verses. Please join together on the refrain:

Let us be bread, blessed by our God, broken and shared, life for the world.

Let us be wine, love freely poured. Let us be one in our God.
