Gathering Words ~ adapted from Beth Merrill Neel in “Hold Fast to What Is Good”

One: This day we have gathered;

Many We gather together bringing our questions and our joy.

One: In song and in silence we will listen –

Many: What is it that God would have us hear this day?

One: In our praise and in our prayers we will remember

Many: That God’s glory shines around us and within us.

All: So let us shine.

Prayers of the Community

First Reading ~ Matthew 5:13-16

You are the salt of the earth. But what if salt were to lose its saltiness (its strength, its quality)? How could you restore it? It is no longer good for anything, but to be thrown out and trampled under foot. You are the light of the world. You don’t build a city on a hill, then try to hide it, do you? You don’t light a lamp, then put it under a bushel basket, do you? No, you set it on a stand where it may give light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give praise to your Heavenly Parent.

Second Reading ~ from Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Returning hate for hate multiplies hate, adding deeper darkness to a night already devoid of stars. Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate, only love can do that.
