Gathering Words ~ adapted from Clinton Lee Scott

One: Always it is easier to pay homage to prophets than to heed the direction of their vision.

Many: It is easier to blindly venerate the saints than to learn the quality of their sainthood.

One: To worship the wise is much easier than to learn from their wisdom.

Many: Great leaders are honored, by following their insights and values.

One: The Grandchildren of those who stoned the prophet sometimes gather up the stones to build the prophet's monument.

Many: Always it is easier to pay homage to prophets than to heed the direction of their vision.

First Reading ~ 1 Samuel 3:1-10

Kurt Jaeger

Now young Samuel was in the service of God under Eli. In those days, the voice of God was rarely heard — visions were not widespread. One night, Eli, whose eyes had grown so weak that he could no longer see, was sleeping in his bed. The lamp of God had not gone out, and Samuel was sleeping in the Tent of Meeting, near the Ark of the Covenant.

Then God called to Samuel. Samuel answered, “Here I am!” and ran to Eli saying, “You called. Here I am!” Eli said, “I didn’t call you. Now go back to sleep.” He went back to sleep.

A second time, God called Samuel, and he got up and went to Eli. “Here I am!” Samuel said, “You called me.” Eli repeated, “I did not call you. Go back to sleep.” At that time Samuel had not yet encountered God, and the word of God had not yet been revealed to him.

God called Samuel a third time, and Samuel got up, went to Eli, and said once more, “Here I am. You called me.” Then Eli realized that God was calling the boy.

So he said to Samuel, “Go back and go to sleep, and if you are called, say, ‘Speak, God, for your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went back to sleep.

And God called, “Samuel! Samuel!”

And Samuel replied, “Speak, God, for I am listening.”

~ from Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in a speech given in Chicago (West Lawndale) in 1966.

I choose to identify with the underprivileged. I choose to identify with the poor. I choose to give my life for the hungry. I choose to give my life for those who have been left out of the sunlight of opportunity. I choose to live for and with those who find themselves seeing life as a long and desolate corridor with no exit sign. This is the way I'm going. If it means suffering a little bit, I'm going that way. If it means sacrificing, I'm going that way. If it means dying for them, I'm going that way, because I heard a voice saying, 'Do something for others'.

Let us be bread, blessed by our God, broken and shared, life for the world.
