Gathering Words

~ adapted from 1 Corinthians 13, from re:think worship

Leigh Anne Arnold

One: God of Love,
We confess we are sometimes impatient, and often unkind;
We are quick to envy, and find subtle ways to boast;
There are times we are rude, and lift ourselves up as we put others down.

Many: Loving God, teach us to love.

One: God of Love
We confess that we are quickly angered;
We are quick to keep track of how often we've been wronged;
There are times when we celebrate the misfortune of others.

Many: Loving God, teach us to love.

One: When we are tempted to judge, to assume the worst... May love remind us to trust
When we are tempted to despair, to assume all is lost... May love remind us to hope
When we are tempted to give up... May love remind us to persevere

All: Loving God, teach us to love.

Prayers of the Community

Dale Bradshaw

Today I have set before you life and success, or death and disaster. For today I command you to love YHWH, your God, to follow God's ways and keep the commandments, the laws and customs. If you do, you will live and increase, and YHWH, your God, will bless you in the land you are entering to possess. But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life, then, so that you and your descendants may live, by loving YHWH, your God, by obeying God's voice, and clinging to YHWH. For that will mean life to you a long life in the land which God swore to give to your ancestors, to Sarah and Abraham, to Rebecca and Isaac, and Leah and Rachel and Jacob.

Second Reading ~from Maimonides, Sepherdic Jewish Philosopher (1138-1204)

We have been given free will. Any person can become as righteous as Moses or as wicked as Jeroboam. We ourselves decide whether to make ourselves learned or ignorant, compassionate or cruel, generous or miserly. No one forces us, no one decides for us, no one drags us along one path or the other; we ourselves, by our own volition, choose our own way.
