

CAROLYN SUNSERI
Director of Marketing
Golden State Finance Authority

Carolyn Sunseri brings over 25 years of public relations and marketing experience to her current position as Director of Marketing with Golden State Finance Authority (GSFA). She has managed the communications and marketing initiatives for GSFA's affordable housing programs throughout the State of California for 16 years. She is responsible for content and design of publications, web sites, advertising, media and public relations, and directly involved in training and education of lenders, realtors and other business partners providing affordable housing solutions to California residents.

Carolyn joined GSFA after serving as Sales Support Manager at Citibank. Carolyn holds a Bachelor of Arts in Public Relations from California State University, Chico and resides in Sacramento, California.