Thanks to the overwhelming fun had at last year's sold-out fundraiser, The Literacy & Learning Center is thrilled to welcome the Swingin' Medallions back to Highlands! Mark your calendars for a foot-stompin' good time at the Swingin' Soiree on Sunday, July 27, at The Farm at Old Edwards from 6:00 to 9:00 P.M.

The legendary Swingin' Medallions will bring their infectious energy and timeless beach tunes to the mountains again, so get ready to dance the night away for a great cause!

These Carolina boys have captivated audiences for over 60 years with their signature horn-driven sound. Remember "Double Shot of My Baby's Love?" It's not just great music... their high-octane performances and infectious energy will get your toes tappin' and your heart pumpin'. Lewis Grizzard labeled the Medallions "The Party

Band of the South," a moniker that has become forever synonymous with the Medallion name.

This is more than just a fun night out. TLLC relies heavily on community support to offer its incredible programs, all of which are provided entirely free of charge. By attending this fundraiser, you'll directly invest in enriching lives and expanding knowledge for people of all ages. That is a feel-good double shot!

The celebration includes an open bar, heavy hors d'oeuvres, desserts, and of course, dancing. Free shuttle service from 200 Main is provided. General admission is $175 per person.

A VIP Patron Package is available at $500 per person and includes some sensational perks such as express check-in and meet the band, table service, reserved seating, reserved priority parking, and a professional shag lesson prior to event.

Don't miss this chance to celebrate a musical legend, support a worthy cause, and experience a night of mountain magic! So, grab your partner and practice your shag because, on July 27, the Medallions are bringing the party to Highlands!
