

Departmental Assembly

Thursday, October 24, 2024

Ingenuim Building – Technology Museum

Time	Sessions	Proposed Champions
12:00 - 12:30 p.m.	Registration for Departmental Assembly Lunch
12:30 - 1:15 p.m.	Welcome and Financial Update	Dr. Clare Liddy Jeff Puncher
1:20 - 2:30 p.m.	Advancements of AI in Health Care  60 min discussion guided by insights from our panel members  10 minutes Q&amp;A At the end of this session participants will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>AI Fundamentals - Define artificial intelligence (AI) and distinguish between its various applications in healthcare to illustrate its potential benefits and challenges.</li> <li>Evaluating AI in Clinical Practice: Analyze the suitability of AI tools for their practice, using an AI scribe as a case study. They will consider factors like technical regulations, legal implications, and ethical concerns, thus enabling informed decision-making about AI adoption.</li> <li>Engaging in Community Practice and Innovation: Identify pain points and opportunities for innovation in their practice related to AI, fostering a collaborative environment to discuss data sovereignty, liability issues, and the impact of AI on the physician-patient relationship, and the preceptor-learner relationship.</li> <li>Interactive Learning and Community Engagement: Engage in a Q&amp;A session with AI experts to help deepen their understanding of AI in healthcare, ultimately contributing to the development of a community of practice around AI in family medicine.</li> </ol>	Jeff Puncher Dr. Chandi Chandrasena Dr. Sharon Johnston Dr. Jason Trickovic
2:30 - 2:45 p.m.	Break
2:45 - 3:45 p.m.	One-Time Funding of Projects  Leads from each project will report an update on the progression of their project, next steps, and implementation plan	Jeff Puncher Dr. Denice Lewis Project leads
3:50 - 4:20 p.m.	Indigenous Health &amp; EDI Update  Call out to join Working Group and Mentorship Program	Dr. Mike Kirlaw Dr. Alex Petiquan
4:20 - 4:30 p.m.	Closing Remarks	Dr. Clare Liddy