OFFERTORY ANTHEM A spotless rose Herbert Howells

A Spotless Rose is blowing, sprung from a tender root,
Of ancient seers' foreshowing, of Jesse promised fruit;
 Its fairest bud unfolds to light
Amid the cold, cold winter, And in the dark midnight.

The Rose which I am singing, whereof Isaiah said,
Is from its sweet root springing in Mary, purest Maid;
 Through God's great love and might
The Blessed Babe she bare us in a cold, cold winter's night.

(translation of "Es ist ein Ros entsprungen" by Catherine Winkworth)

COMMUNION ANTHEM Let all mortal flesh keep silence Edward Cuthbert Bairstow

Let all mortal flesh keep silence and stand with fear and trembling, and lift itself above all earthly thought.

For the King of kings and Lord of lords, Christ our God, cometh forth to be our oblation,
and to be given for Food to the faithful.

Before Him come the choirs of angels with every principality and power;
the Cherubim with many eyes, and winged Seraphim,
who veil their faces as they shout exultingly the hymn:
 Alleluia!

ORGAN POSTLUDE Rhapsody No. 3, Op. 17 Herbert Howells
