

The organizers of this event know so many citizens including business owners have questions, we want to be clear on what this event is and what this event is not!

This event will be hosted beginning at 6pm on FRIDAY evening.

Location has changed too. We have decided to host this peaceful protest at City Park. We ask those in attendance to meet in front of the Carnegie Building at 6pm on Friday.

Face masks and social distancing is strongly encouraged!

What is this Event?

1. This event promotes equality for all citizens.
2. This event celebrates differences and commonalities.
3. This event is an opportunity to empathize with members of our community.
4. This event is a partnership with local law enforcement. We honor that they protect and serve our community.
5. This event is a peaceful, family friendly gathering.

This event is NOT!

1. This event is NOT an attack on the Ottawa Police Department or any other form of law enforcement.
2. This event is not an excuse to damage any business, residence, or community space in Ottawa.
3. This event is NOT in collaboration with any national organizations.
4. This event is NOT an attempt to divide our community.
5. This event is NOT an attack on business and/or the local economy.

We have several speakers arranged for Friday night's event.

Those speakers include the Ottawa Police Department's Chief of Police, Community activist Richard Jackson, a parent who is raising bi-racial children in our community, a young woman who is proudly bi-racial and was raised in Ottawa and the most recent Student Body President of Ottawa University.

We will be updating specifics of the event on our Facebook event page.

We hope you join us for this peaceful event on Friday evening beginning at 6pm.
