

GUN VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDERS

If you are concerned someone close to you may use a firearm to hurt themselves or others, you may be able to file a Gun Violence Restraining Order to provide the opportunity for them to safely access help and to prevent gun violence and firearm suicide.

You can access a step-by-step guide and find all the required documents to file a request for a Gun Violence Restraining Order online at gunsafety.ca.gov or at your local Superior Court.

WHAT IS A GUN VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDER?

- A Gun Violence Restraining Order is a temporary action taken by a local court when someone is at risk of causing harm to themselves or others.
- The individual in crisis receiving the order cannot purchase or possess firearms or ammunition while the order is in place.
- These temporary orders empower Californians to intervene, protect the rights of individuals in crisis and are not considered punishment under the law.

HOW DOES A GUN VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDER KEEP PEOPLE SAFE?

- Research shows that Gun Violence Restraining Order in California helped prevent 58 threatened mass shootings in the first three years since taking effect.
- Gun Violence Restraining Order help prevent firearm suicides, which represent half of the state's gun deaths. Data shows enforcement of a similar law helped lead to a 14-percent reduction in Connecticut's firearm suicide rate.

WHO CAN FILE A REQUEST FOR GUN VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDER IN CALIFORNIA?

It is free to file a request for a Gun Violence Restraining Order.

Eligible petitioners include:

- A family member or loved one related by blood, marriage or adoption.
- A current or recent household member and roommate.
- A coworker who has had regular interactions with the person in crisis for at least one year, with approval from the employer.
- A teacher or employee at a middle school, high school, college or university that the person in crisis has attended in the last six months, with approval from a school administrator or supervisor.
- Law enforcement, including California peace officers.
- An individual who has a child in common or who has a dating relationship with the person in crisis.

IF YOU OR A LOVED ONE IS ACTIVELY EXPERIENCING A CRISIS AND AT IMMINENT RISK OF SELF-HARM OR HARM TO OTHERS, CALL 911.

GUN VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDERS

THE SAN DIEGO POLICE DEPARTMENT AND THE CITY ATTORNEY'S GUN VIOLENCE REDUCTION UNIT ARE HERE TO HELP.

IF YOU BELIEVE SOMEONE IS A DANGER TO THEMSELVES OR OTHERS, OR EXHIBITING CONCERNING BEHAVIORS & HAS ACCESS TO FIREARMS OR INTENDS TO OBTAIN FIREARMS:

Emergency situations: 911

Report suspicious activity and non-urgent concerns to the San Diego Police Department: 619-531-2000

Officers respond to evaluate the situation and take a report if appropriate.

If there is an IMMEDIATE THREAT:

Officers will seek an emergency protective order for firearms (EPO-002), serve it, and collect the firearms.

Once an EPO-002 is issued, the court hearing process will be handled by the joint SDPD and City Attorney's Office - Gun Violence Reduction Unit (GVRU).

If there is NO IMMEDIATE THREAT:

The report may be submitted for consideration of a Gun Violence Restraining Order (GVRO) petition.

The report will be evaluated for a potential GVRO.

If a GVRO is sought, the court hearing process will be handled by the SDPD and City Attorney's Office - GVRU.

IF YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW IS ACTIVELY EXPERIENCING A CRISIS AND AT IMMINENT RISK OF SELF-HARM OR HARM TO OTHERS, CALL 911.

For more information about the City Attorney's Office Gun Violence Reduction Unit: SanDiego.Gov/city-attorney