for 195 years

The Grand Army Hall of The Republic (G.A.R.) has been the venue of choice for Scituate's social events, lectures, historical celebrations, family reunions, and theatrical productions. Now, the historic hall is available for private use by a new generation of Americans who appreciate the conviviality of a small town community, and who wish to host a memorable event.

Book your next event at this historical treasure. Fully restored, handicap accessible and features full caterers kitchen, stage, projection screen, WiFi, baby grand piano, original pine flooring, balcony, air conditioning, and seating capacity for up to 125.
