Mt. 25:14-30

The pieces of the Parable of the Talents

A passage that makes many uncomfortable

Because the master has very high standards

Because it's talking about the Lord and us

Because all I own, including myself, belongs to the Lord
(Ps. 24:1; Hag. 2:8; 1 Cor. 6:19-20)

Because the Lord will hold us accountable for what He's entrusted to us

Encouraging truths in the Parable of the Talents

The Lord sees ability in each believer (25:15)

Every believer is entrusted with some "talent" from the Lord

The Lord has a lot of resources to accomplish His work (25:21)

The Lord's servants are part of His growth plan

You can do, at least, something to advance the Lord's cause
(25:27)

The Lord evaluates you based on what He entrusted to you, not on what the other guy has done (25:21, 23)

The Lord is willing to share His joy with His servants (25:21)
