About Us

- SSKP was founded in 1989.
- All our meals and services are offered free-of-charge.
- The only requirement to receive food is residency in the 11 towns we serve.
- 1.6 million pounds of food was shared through our pantries in 2025.

Our Programs

- Food Pantries: Registered guests can visit one of our 6 locations weekly for fresh produce, dairy, meat, and pantry staples.
- Community Meals: Everyone is welcome to join us for breakfast, lunch, or dinner at 9 locations.
- Backpack Program: Children access food on weekends and school breaks.

A Mission that Matters

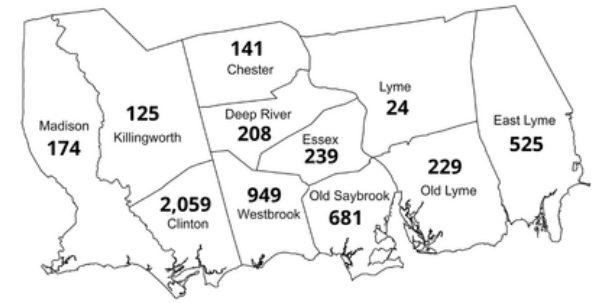

We provide food and fellowship to those in need and educate our community about hunger and poverty.

With the help of eight hundred volunteers and fourteen faith communities, we share food every day.

We rely on donations from individuals, foundations, and local partners rather than state or federal funding.

We are grateful for our supporters!
Your donations make our work possible.

Thank you!

Our Towns

SSKP serves residents of Madison, Clinton, Killingworth, Westbrook, Essex, Chester, Deep River, Old Saybrook, Old Lyme, Lyme, and East Lyme.

Who We Serve

Many of our guests work at low-wage jobs. Others struggle with a medical crisis or live with a disability. Some care for children or are seniors on a fixed income.

Every guest is facing unique challenges, and all are welcomed with dignity, respect, and compassion.
