

International Vice President Designate Cathy Szymanski shares her Kiwanis passion and energy. She will also be serving as counselor to the District in 2025-2026.

Lenora Hanna (left), the president-designate for the Kiwanis Children's Fund and also a past governor of the Nebraska-Iowa District, accepts a gift from Gov. John Boltz after her speech at Saturday's convention.

Mike Biedenfeld of the Fort Dodge Kiwanis Club (right) accepts the Mark Holmer Lay Person Award from Convention MC Don Fritz.

Nebraska-Iowa District Convention

Aug. 1&2, 2025
The Graduate,
Lincoln, NE

BE THE DIFFERENCE

Friday night's Kiwanis Kollege of Kwestionable Knowledge was a fun trivia game and a mac and cheese collection service project. More than 2,500 boxes of mac and cheese were collected over the two day convention.

TeamMates CEO DeMoine Adams shares a "weighted" message about positive attitude.

A table of Kiwanians and Key Club members listen to the speakers from the stage at The Graduate during Saturday morning's assembly.

Bruce Chapman shows a rock he painted. This service project will put these "Kiwanis Rocks" at area parks and playgrounds.

Julie Weaver of Spencer HyNoon (left) was elected as the 2025-2026 Vice Governor. She accepts the home club banner from Governor Elect Designate Tim McGee, who received his new banner from Governor Designate Brian Wells. Also pictured are outgoing Governor John Boltz and Immediate Past Governor Dale Doudna. Pictured below are the 2025-2026 lt. governors during installation.

FIND MORE PHOTOS ON THE WEBSITE!

