

The team for the project

Five team members are shown in a row with their names below their photos: Ali Tatham, Spike Davis, David Locke, Lorna Wainwood, and Isaac Heald.

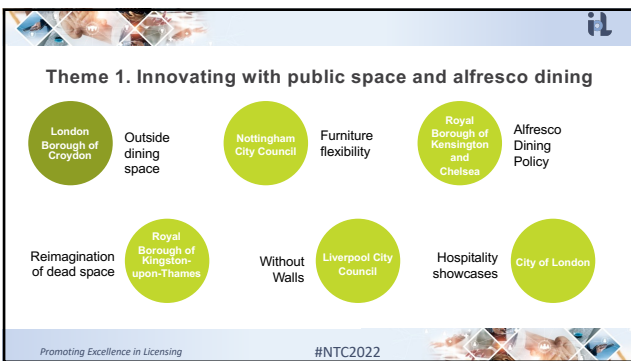

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022

Project summary

- Interviews conducted January to March 2022:
 - 25 local authorities
 - 31 other stakeholders
 - Summary published June 2022
- Grant funding applications summer 2022
 - 13 LAs applied
- Decision September 2022
 - Five selected

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022

Theme 1. Innovating with public space and alfresco dining

Seven circular icons represent different projects and policies:

- London Borough of Croydon: Outside dining space
- Nottingham City Council: Furniture flexibility
- Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea: Alfresco Dining Policy
- Royal Borough of Kingston-upon-Thames: Reimagination of dead space
- Without Walls: Without Walls
- Liverpool City Council: Hospitality showcases
- City of London: City of London

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022

Theme 2. Providing pre-application support

- Royal Borough of Greenwich Start up advice
- City of Westminster Pre-application advice
- London Borough of Haringey Pre-application tools
- London Borough of Waltham Forest NTE application toolkit
- Cornwall Council Pre-application support

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022

Theme 3. Getting creative with standards schemes

- London Borough of Harrow Pubwatch and BBN enhancements
- City of London Safety Thirst
- London Borough of Hackney Hackney Nights portal
- Broxbourne District Council 'Covid safe' scheme
- Horsham District Council Hospitality Skills Buffet

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022

Theme 4. Enhancing understanding and partnerships

- Institute of Licensing Job shadowing
- City of London Training for elected members
- London Borough of Camden Community Improvement District
- Coventry City Council Co-located planning and licensing
- Sheffield City Council NTE shifts for regulatory teams

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022

Theme 5. Facilitating new opportunities

- London Borough of Waltham Forest: Facility for delivery drivers
- London Borough of Hackney: Facilities for delivery drivers
- London Borough of Hillingdon: Approach for home-based alcohol delivery applications
- London Borough of Enfield: Fore Street For All
- London Borough of Lewisham: Business and IP Centre

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022

Theme 6. Reducing cost and time burdens

- London Borough of Hackney: Open Markets platform
- Various authorities: Allowing informal plans changes
- London Borough of Kingston upon Thames: Online applications and inspections
- London Borough of Newham: Reduced committee hearings
- London Borough of Havering: Online applications and fee payments

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022

Theme 7. Developing policies to support business

- London Borough of Southwark: Clear statement of licensing policy
- City of London: Award-winning noise policy
- London Borough of Hillingdon: Business-friendly street trading policy
- Several local authorities: Removal of Cumulative Impact Areas
- London Borough of Greenwich: Street entertainment licences

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022

Theme 8. National change to support business

- Pavement licensing
- Consistency of implementation
- Flexible change of use
- Extend online application system
- Locally set fees

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022

Next steps in the project...

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022

Any questions?

Sylvia Oates
Six Till Six
sylvia@sixtillsix.com

Tim Spires
Greater London Authority
tim.spires@london.gov.uk

Promoting Excellence in Licensing #NTC2022
