A FEW MORE POINTS

- The official news of his death
- 22.31 - Guilt & Shame
- Grateful for his big decisions
- Realising coming to terms will never happen

MARTYN'S LAW (Amended Protect Duty)

- ☐ Engage in freely available ACT e-learning training
- ☐ Carry out a terrorism risk assessment (inside & outside)
- ☐ Mitigate any risks identified during the assessment
- ☐ Establish a counter terrorism action plan (& inform staff)
- ☐ Local authorities are prepared & work with the venue

MY CONCERNS

- The delay in legislation
- The wording of the legislation – too much ambiguity
- The legislation being too complicated and removed from what we asked for
- Penalties and breaches not strong enough

UPDATE ON MARTYN'S LAW

- Campaign started January 2019
- Obstacles early on in the campaign
- Various delays: Covid, Partygate, no govt for 2 months, change in govt
- Struggle for some people to understand financial situation
- How doing the Masters in Counterterrorism helped with this
- Meeting with Priti Patel in August
- Met the new security minister, the Rt Hon Tom Tugendhat
- Communicating needs of industry on social media
