More Democracy Wins

A federal judge denied the DHS's request to pause an order shutting down use of its modified Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements system to certify registered voters' citizenship status.

A federal judge blocked a Trump administration attempt to obtain the identities of 2020 election workers in Georgia's Fulton County.

Judge Lewis Kaplan ordered the release of more than $5 million to E. Jean Carroll, rejecting Trump's attempt to delay paying the columnist after a jury found he sexually abused and defamed her.

The 11th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals struck down Florida's Stop WOKE Act provisions restricting race and gender instruction at public colleges, ruling the law unconstitutionally suppresses political viewpoints in academic settings.

A Tampa-Based U.S. district judge dismissed Trump Media and Technology Group's $3.8 billion defamation lawsuit against The Washington Post, finding the company failed to present evidence of actual malice.

Trump lost another legal bid to restore his name to the Kennedy Center.

Former Wisconsin Judge Hannah Dugan was spared from prison for ushering a Mexican defendant through her jury room door as ICE agents sought to arrest him in a courthouse hallway. She was ordered to pay $5,000.