Affordable Housing: the H.A.R.D. Study

Tuesday, February 11, 9:30 – 11:00 am

Nineteenth Century Club, 178 Forest Avenue, Oak Park

A 3-year effort by the Cook County League of Women Voters Housing Affordability and Residential Desegregation Interest Group, the H.A.R.D. Study asks, “What can Cook County Government do to promote affordable rental housing for families with children while reducing segregation?” The focus is on families with children because studies confirm the clear benefits to children who move to desegregated areas.

But H.A.R.D. not only identifies what Cook County can do: there also are many implications for suburban municipalities in terms of planning, compliance, and taxes. Meet Kelly Kleiman, Chair of the H.A.R.D. Study, learn about this landmark study, and discuss how we can support and advance housing equity in our county and our villages.
